

I would like the FCC to understand the need to keep FM translators over the LPFM broadcasters. KLOVE and AirOne Radio are on translators in Lexington, KY. They provide safe music and talk for families to listen to. We are all aware of the recent violations by various DJs around the country all following Howard Stern's shock mentality. Why not keep providing safe entertainment on the translator system? Please do not replace FM translators.